Graduate Diploma in Ministry

The GradDipMin aims to equip people in active ministry with skills in theological reflection, to focus on the context and experience of ministry, and to develop particular interests in applied theology.

Master of Arts (Theology)

The MA (Theol) allows students who have completed initial graduate studies in theology to pursue further coursework studies.

Specialised Master of Arts

Specialised versions of the MA allow students to focus on a particular discipline:

- Master of Arts (Biblical Studies)
- Master of Arts (Church History)
- Master of Arts (Liturgy Leadership)
- Master of Arts (Faith Leadership)
- Master of Arts (Moral Theology)
- Master of Arts (Pastoral Care)
- Master of Arts (Philosophy)
- Master of Arts (Religious Education)
- Master of arts (Social Justice)
- Master of Arts (Spirituality)
- Master of Arts (Systematic Theology)

Master of Theological Studies

The MTS is a coursework Master's degree designed to provide a wide range of theological units for those who already hold a primary degree in theology.

FEE-HELP

Postgraduate students who are Australian Citizens, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa, may pay their tuition fees by FEE-HELP. Please note that no loan fees apply for using FEE-HELP in a postgraduate course. See the FEE-HELP information section on our website.

The wide range of postgraduate studies available at CTC makes further study in theology and philosophy accessible to students with varying undergraduate backgrounds, and diverse interests.

- Theology graduates can undertake further, specialised study through coursework and research.
- Graduates from other disciplines can commence theological studies through coursework degrees at postgraduate level.
- Graduates who are engaged in active ministry can integrate further theological study with the pastoral concerns of ministry through Advanced Ministry Studies.

Typical Postgraduate Study Paths

Graduate Certificate in Theology

The GradCertTheol offers an introduction to the discipline of theology. It can also be a base for further graduate theological studies.

Graduate Certificate in Liturgy

The GradCertLit offers an integrated, focussed and practical program of studies for students who wish to pursue specialised studies in Liturgy. It can also be a base for further graduate theological studies.

Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education

The GradCertTeachRE is designed for those seeking accreditation to teach religious education in Catholic Schools. It provides an opportunity for students to develop and deepen their understanding of scripture, theology and religious education, so as to assist them in preparation, implementation and evaluation of programs of religious education.

Graduate Diploma in Theology

The GradDipTheol offers a general introduction to the discipline of theology.

It is designed to enable graduates to work at a level that equips them to engage in serious theological reflection, and possibly to undertake further study in theology.

This diploma also allows those with an undergraduate degree in theology to undertake further study in a particular theological discipline:

- Graduate Diploma in Biblical Studies
- Graduate Diploma in Church History
- Graduate Diploma in Faith Leadership
- Graduate Diploma in Liturgy
- Graduate Diploma in Moral Theology
- Graduate Diploma in Pastoral Care
- Graduate Diploma in Philosophy
- Graduate Diploma in Religious Education
- Graduate Diploma in Social Justice
- Graduate Diploma in Spirituality
- Graduate Diploma in Systematic Theology
